

2014 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

SATURDAY, JUNE 07

WHAT: Redefining Refugee Gallery Show, co-sponsored by Tennessee Foreign Language Institute's ESL to Go program, Impact Hub, and Picture Change. Featuring photography by former refugees now living in Nashville.

WHEN: 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm

WHERE: Impact Hub at Houston Station
434 Houston St Nashville 37203

COST: Free admission and open to the public.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11

WHAT: Immigration Q&A, hosted by the Center for Refugees and Immigrants of Tennessee. USCIS Community Relations Officer Marilyn Onisko will be taking questions about green cards, citizenship, family reunification, and other immigration services.

WHEN: 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

WHERE: Islamic Center of Tennessee
5400 Bell Forge Ln E Antioch 37013

COST: Free and open to the public

FRIDAY, JUNE 20

WORLD REFUGEE DAY

WHAT: Songwriters & Storytellers Night, hosted by World Relief Nashville. Featuring Jenny Simmons, David Curtis, Rachael Hurt, and The Early Reset.

WHEN: 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

WHERE: Well Coffeehouse
4002 Granny White Pike Nashville 37204

COST: Free admission and open to the public. Donations are welcome.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20

WHAT: World Refugee Day Celebration, hosted by Bridge Refugee Services Chattanooga. Open house featuring food, refugee stories, and music.

WHEN: 12:00 pm - 2:00 pm

WHERE: Bridge Refugee Services Office
4791A Hal Dr Chattanooga 37416

COST: Free admission and open open to the public.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20

WHAT: "Our Stories" hosted by Bridge Refugee Services Knoxville. Open House and light refreshments. A celebration of refugee stories, food, cultural displays, and a silent auction. Guest speaker at 6:15pm is Drocilla Mogrewera, former Rwandan Environmental Minister, who will tell her story of fleeing Rwanda and finding a home in Knoxville.

WHEN: 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm

WHERE: The Standard
416 W Jackson Ave Knoxville 37902

COST: Free admission and open to the public.

EXTRA: 7:30-9:30pm next door to The Standard. Circle Modern Dance, a local artist collective, will perform their piece "New Terrain" and will feature refugee stories.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20

WHAT: "Growing in Our Community: A World Refugee Day" hosted by the Frist Center for the Visual Arts. The Frist Center for the Visual Arts invites you to join teens from the Oasis Center's International Teen Outreach Program (ITOP) in celebrating works created in honor of the United Nations World Refugee Day. A special reception will be held on the Frist Center's Broadway Terrace. Artworks will be on display in the Grand Lobby.

WHEN: 11:00 am

WHERE: Frist Center for the Visual Arts
919 Broadway Nashville 37203

COST: Free admission and open open to the public.

SATURDAY, JUNE 21

WHAT: World Refugee Day Block Party hosted by World Relief Nashville. Featuring games, kids' soccer tournament, sepak takraw (kick volleyball) tournament, crafts and free food.

WHEN: 1:00 pm - 3:00pm

WHERE: Vista Apartments
5319 Nolensville Rd Nashville 37211

COST: Free admission and open open to the public.

For more information about World Refugee Day please visit the United Nations High Commissioner on Refugees website at <http://www.unhcr.org/cgi-bin/texis/vtx/home> and at <http://stories.unhcr.org/us>.

For more information about and how you can help refugees in your community please visit Tennessee Office for Refugees website or contact any one of our refugee partners.